

Working with SELIGER + ASSOCIATES
is easy and cost effective ...

Seliger + Associates provides comprehensive grant writing, grant source research, and related services for nonprofit and public agencies on a consulting basis.

We have been in business since 1993 and have served over 350 clients in 30 states, Washington, DC, and several foreign countries. Seliger + Associates has written over $70 million in funded proposals.

Seliger + Associates uses a simple, turn-key approach when working with our clients. That means you need only give us general direction and sign the completed grant applications. We do all the rest, including the narrative, needs assessment, budget, and final submission package.

GRANT WRITING

Turn-Key
Grant Writing
Services

Your key to obtaining the grants you need.

Services

Easy + Effective

- Writing all types of grant proposals, including federal, state, county, city, foundation and corporate giving.
- Conducting grant searches to identify funding sources. We closely follow government grant availability and maintain a database of over 18,000 foundation and corporate giving sources.
- Preparing nonprofit incorporation documents and applications for state/federal tax exempt status.
- Drafting program plans for such contract service providers as group homes, foster family agencies, child care and substance abuse treatment providers, etc.
- Creating business plans, proformas, and presentation packages for businesses.
- Editing client draft proposals and providing technical assistance.
- Coaching/mentoring for individuals interested in grant writing careers.

Fees

Simple + Affordable

Fees vary with the complexity of the assignment. Most assignments are completed for a reasonable flat fee. Seliger + Associates never works for contingent fees.

For clients with long term needs, monthly retainers and not-to-exceed agreements are available. These fee arrangements enable Seliger + Associates to conduct grant source research, write proposals, and provide advice on an ongoing basis. Hours are billed at a 20% discount from our hourly rate.

Coaching/mentoring for individuals pursuing a grant writing career and editing services are offered on an hourly basis.
